

To the Worthy LIVERYMEN of the City of LONDON.

GENTLEMEN, and FELLOW CITIZENS,

I BEG Leave to return you my most cordial and sincere Thanks for your zealous and early Appearance for me this Day. Trusting entirely to the Disinterestedness and generous Support of the Livery of London, I entreat the continuance of your Patronage and Protection to perfect what you have begun, and to carry me through the Poll with Success, in consequence of your own Nomination; the Majority appearing by the Declaration of the Sheriffs to be in my Favour.

I am, with Gratitude and Respect,

GENTLEMEN,

Your devoted,

Wednesday, March 16, 1768.

And obedient humble Servant,

JOHN WILKES.

N. B. The Poll begins To-morrow at Nine, and ends at Three.

